1. SUBJECT TO GUATEMALA STATION CONCURRENCE, WE BELIEVE LIRING/3 SHOULD BE CANDID WITH LIRING/10 AND TELL HIM WHAT AND AS MUCH AS HE WANTS TO KNOW. WE FEEL IF LIRING/3 ATTEMPTED WITHHOLD OR DISTORT DETAILS HIS IMPRISONMENT, IT COULD BE COUNTERPRODUCTIVE TO OPERATION SINCE LIRING/10 PROBABLY COULD CHECK OTHER SOURCES FOR ACCURACY.

2. THERE NO URGENCY FOR LIRING/3 MAKE TRIP TO PERUMEN. WE BELIEVE IT MORE ADVANTAGEOUS FOR HIM TO REMAIN MEXICO AND ATTEMPT BECOME INVOLVED LOCAL PERUMEN/GUATEMALA EXILE ACTIVITIES. IF, HOWEVER, LIRING/10 SUGGESTS LIRING/3 GO PERUMEN, HE SHOULD NOT HESITATE DO SO.

 RELATIONSHIP IN ANY WAY NECESSARY TO SUPPORT UNILATERAL WOFIRM
 OPERATIONS. NEVERTHELESS IT MUST BE REALIZED THAT AFTER 6 MONTHS, REVEALING WOFIRM INTEREST IN LIRING-3 IS SOMEWHAT AWKWARD. WHILE GUATEMALAN CITY STATION IS NOT FULLY COGNIZANT OF ALL OPERATIONAL IMPLI-CATIONS LIRING-4 OPERATION AND ITS VALUE TO WOFIRM, WE CONTINUE TO BE-LIEVE THAT BY ALLOWING MORE TIME LIRING-3 AND COMPANION WILL BE RE-LEASED WITHOUT NEED INDICATE WOFIRM INTEREST. THIS APPEARS MORE IN LINE WITH MEXICO CITY STATION POSITION THEY DEFINITELY NOT IN FAVOR
 INTERVENTION WITH GUAT AUTHORITIES WHICH WOULD FINGER LIRING-3
 AS SOME TYPE WOFIRM ASSET (MEXICO CITY 5984).

2. IF MEXICO CITY HAS CHANGED ABOVE POSITION AND NOW AGREES
 WOFIRM INTEREST CAN BE INDICATED, SUGGEST FOLLOWING APPROACH:
 STATION WILL ADVISE ESMajor-20 THAT MEXICO CITY HAS DEVELOPED
 AN OPERATIONAL INTEREST IN LIRING-3'S WIFE BUT UNABLE PROCEED WITH OPERATION BECAUSE OF HER CONCERN OVER FATE OF HER HUSBAND.
 WE CAN THEN ASK ESMajor-20 ATTEMPT ASCERTAIN WHEN TRIAL

1. Forwarded under separate cover are twelve reports prepared by Wallace B. ROWTON on the activities of LIRING-3, LIRING-4, and contacts of the latter.

2. The main topic covered in ROWTON's reports is LIRING-4's efforts to obtain help in getting LIRING-3 out of jail in Guatemala as soon as possible. LIRING-4 is almost penniless (ROWTON has made only token payments to her after 15 June) and has been moving from one apartment to a cheaper one living on the sale of paintings left by LIRING-3 and small loans from leftist contacts. In the hope that she may be able to do something for LIRING-3, LIRING-4 has resisted all of ROWTON's efforts to get her to undertake a clandestine mission to PERUVEN, a mission, as Headquarters knows, was planned long ago. As a foreigner, LIRING-4 cannot work in Mexico without taking the chance of being deported, if caught. Although she has not tried it, she would probably be refused a visa to go to Guatemala to visit LIRING-3. She might also face difficulties in Guatemala including possible detention and interrogation if she succeeded in obtaining an entry permit to that country.

3. By mid-September 1968 LIRING-4 had received very little help from her Mexican leftist or outright Communist friends. In spite of promises to try to bribe the Guatemalan judge scheduled to try LIRING-3 all LIRING-4's "Friends" succeeded in doing was to print several articles in the local press (some of them with LIRING-3's photo) claiming that LIRING-3 was unjustly imprisoned, that he was about to be executed, etc. If anything, these articles did little to prejudice the Guatemalans in favor of LIRING-3. As a matter of fact, the latter who succeeded in sending LIRING-4 a few letters via the Mexican Consul in Guatemala City who comes to visit him in jail, recently claimed that he was saved from a prison "transfer" by the Guatemalan army by the arrival of the Mexican Consul. LIRING-3 viewed this "transfer" purely and simply as an execution attempt.

4. LIRING-4 received even less help from LIRING who told her that there was nothing it could do to help LIRING-3. LIRING-4, on the advice contained in one of the notes sent from prison by LIRING-3, kept away from LIRING and its employees until she met LIRING-10 by accident at the office of one of the leftist papers on 27 July. LIRING-10 convinced her to resume her visits to LIRING. That the local PERUVENS still have doubts about LIRING-3 despite his imprisonment in Guatemala is indicated by the statements made by Rodolfo REYES (see ROWTON's 17 July report) to the effect that the latter would not be willing to help LIRING-3 until he found out on what side of "el griego" (ROWTON under false identity) he was. REYES added that LIRING suspects the "griego" of WOFIRM connections, although it has no definite proof of this.

5. Statements such as those made by REYES confirm the Station's belief that LIRING, upon orders from home, is still attempting to investigate ROWTON. Such statements also re-enforce the decision of the Station not to attempt, through liaison, to obtain the release of LIRING-3. Such an attempt, if it leaked, would not only expose LIRING-3 to PERUVEN and Guatemalan FAR reprisals, it would probably also have adverse repercussions on ROWTON's security. LIRING-11 whom ROWTON met briefly on 5 July (see ROWTON's report dated 9 July) said nothing about LIRING-3's arrest when ROWTON complained that mail which he said he sent to LIRING-3 remained unanswered. It is also to be noted that REYES, who of course knows that LIRING-4 is in Mexico, told ROWTON that she was probably in PERUVEN. This shows clearly the distrust with which LIRING views ROWTON. cit. Cuba
at. Cuba
at. Cuba

6. LIRING-4 developed close relationship with Orlando SUAREZ of the Ministry of Culture now in Mexico at the invitation of the Mexican Communist lural printer David ALFARO Sigeeiros. By mid-September, in fact, SUAREZ was staying at LIRING-4's apartment although LIRING-4 claimed to ROWTON that there was no romancing between the two and that SUAREZ used her apartment because he was too broke to get one of his own. In view of LIRING-4's assessment of SUAREZ as very leftist and pro-AMENUG-1 no effort was made to approach him.

7. Contacts between ROWTON and LIRING-4 have taken place with decreasing frequency because the usefulness of LIRING-4 to WOFIRM has sharply decreased and because LIRING-4 is more and more convinced that ROWTON cannot or will not help her obtain the release of LIRING-3. In her frantic efforts to do something for LIRING-3, LIRING-4 has in fact not had any contact with ROWTON since early September. Unless LIRING-3 is released by the Guatemalan authorities or receives only a light sentence keeping him in jail only a short time longer, it is doubtful that LIRING-4 will be of much use to ROWTON and the Station.

3. The product of LIRING-4's efforts to case the LIRING consulate will be reviewed in a separate dispatch which will also transmit floor plans and drawings of that LIRING component. There is little question that the news of LIRING-3's arrest in Guatemala gained LIRING-4 the sympathy of various members of LIRING including LIRING-3, -9 and -16. They seem to understand LIRING-4's desire to postpone her departure for PERUMEN after having received her long awaited PERUMEN visa. The problem now is to have LIRING-4 leave for PERUMEN while LIRING-3 is still incarcerated in Guatemala. As mentioned in a recent cable, ROWTON has encouraged LIRING-4's plans to try to visit LIRING-3 in jail in Guatemala City as ROWTON feels that LIRING-3 will probably urge LIRING-4 to spend in PERUMEN at least some of the time he has to spend in jail. As for the conduct of Sergio VALDEZ (see ROWTON's reports dated 19 April and 6 May), it appears that the latter has deliberately been provoking LIRING-4. As this Station sees it, VALDEZ's purpose was to try to "shake up" LIRING-4 in the absence of LIRING-3 to test her reactions. It is doubtful that he acted as he did strictly for his own account. There is no real indication that he may have been doing this for the PERUMEN's (although this is no doubt a possibility). The Station is looking into the desirability, at this point, of placing VALDEZ under surveillance. The claim that ROWTON in alias offered Carmen LOZADA a certain sum of money for intelligence information in PERUMEN has no foundation.

Subject: Wallace B. Horton Meeting with LIRING/4.

1. Horton met with LIRING/4 at the Diana Restaurant (Calle Mississippi) from about 1815 until 1900 on 16/4/68. L/4 asked Horton whether he had heard anything from LIRING/3 and stated that she was ^{3:00 PM}beginning to worry since he had promised to let her know of an address in Chiapas to which she could write. Horton pretended not to know precisely where and for how long L/3 intended to be away, commenting that he felt it unfortunate that he had been out of town three days before L/3 had left and did not have the benefit of a final discussion. Horton alleged that L/3 had not told him very much in the letter he had left with L/4 for him just before leaving, and, in fact, had not mentioned anything about Raúl Moreno driving him and Francisco Lara to Chiapas in his car. In a further effort to ~~persuade~~ dissuade L/4 from believing subsequently (when she finally learned of his arrest) that Horton was responsible for the tragic development, Horton alleged that he had urged L/3 not to cross the border but only to guide Lara to a safe crossing point and return immediately to San Cristóbal.
2. L/4 stated that unfortunately she herself knew very little of the final arrangements. She explained that L/3 had told her that he had persuaded Raúl Moreno to drive him and Lara to Chiapas because of the self-inflicted leg wound that prevented Lara from walking any great distance. She added that L/3, in his last telephone conversation with her told her that Raúl Moreno had finally "chickened out" and returned to Mexico City. (L/4 made no mention of Carlos Persaval and Horton assumes that after Raúl Moreno backed out of his previous commitment, probably even before they left Mexico City, L/3 turned to Carlos Persaval and persuaded him to drive them to Chiapas in his car, and subsequently to accompany them across the border). L/4 continued that she was happy that Horton had dissuaded L/3 from crossing the border because she was well aware of the dangers involved if he fell into a trap or was picked up by the Guatemalans. She added that she did not particularly like Francisco Lara anyway and felt that he was too well known to escape detection.
3. In reply to Horton's query, L/4 stated that Sandoval of the "thirteenth" (Yon Sosa Group) had telephoned her several times to ask if he could help her in any way, but did not apparently have any news. Horton suggested that L/4 keep in touch with Sandoval just in case he might have learned something from FAR or Yon Sosa contacts. L/4 gave Horton Sandoval's address as Larma 54, apt B, but commented that she felt a little embarrassed to see him alone in the absence of L/3. Horton then suggested that perhaps it might be more discreet to send I/3's 16-year-old son (who was staying with her at the time) around to enquire. I/4 agreed that this would be best and indicated that she would do so the next day. I/4 also stated that she felt she could get in touch more or less naturally with Raffi Moranc through Sergio Valdez to determine what had happened during the trip to Chiapas.

4. Norton then asked I/4 to revisit the LIRING offices the following morning to study the lay-out of the back room (LIRING's office) and to use the typewriter again. I/4 stated that she finally found out that the typewriter in the main office was a German one but had not as yet been able to determine the exact name. She added that the one in the Mexican/Cuban Cultural Relations Office on Calle Hamburgo was a Remington and not the same as the one in the LIRING office. Norton also asked I/4 to pick up as many blank forms and letter-head paper as possible.

5. I/4 commented that she had become quite close to Catalina Cepero during the past month and could count on her as a pretext for future visits to the office. I/4 added that on the previous afternoon Catalina had told her that the salaries of Cubana de Aviación personnel had been reduced and that her husband's salary had been cut from 450 dollars per month to 300 and that the LIRING office informed her that gasoline was being rationed for all mission personnel. Catalina also told her that packages destined for Cuba were not being delivered by Cubana de Aviación and that the backlog was so great that two officials had just arrived from Havana to attempt to resolve the problems involved. Catalina also complained that she was "sick and tired" of working in the office without pay and had tried to quit but was told by LIRING's that she must continue to help since the workload was so great. I/4 also told Norton that Catalina had complained of money problems because of the cut in her husband's salary and hinted that she could use any money I/4 could loan her until next payday. Norton suggested that I/4 lend Catalina 100 or 200 pesos in view of the usefulness Catalina might provide in I/4's continued access to the LIRING offices. I/4 added that Catalina had apparently become so attached to her that she was using I/4 to move into the apartment across the hall from her which had become vacant (Cepero's apartment is 204 at Calle Juanacatlán 169).

6. I/4 also reported that Catalina had told her that a new directive had come out prohibiting all employees of the mission from carrying back to Havana any packages of personal items whatsoever. Catalina commented that for that reason Echozandia (García de la Cruz) who left the previous week could not take an ostraciser back with him to her family.

Subject: LIRING/4 Report on Visit to LIRING Offices.

1. Rowton met with LIRING/4 at the Mississippi Restaurant from about 2035 until 2115 on 17/4/68 to debrief her on her visit to the LIRING office earlier that day. LIRING/4 was obviously worried, and said so at one point, about LIRING/3 in view of the total absence of any news or communication from him. Rowton pretended to be even more ignorant of L/3's current whereabouts than L/4 herself, and asked anxiously whether she had learned anything from Sandoval or Sergio Valdez. L/4 replied that Sergio had told her that Raúl Moreno while driving L/3 and Lara to Chiapas had had an accident in the car that had proved very costly to him, although fortunately no injuries resulted to anyone. Valdez continued that Raúl had to appeal to his father for money to cover the expenses involved in getting the car running again. Valdez did not know what had happened to L/3 and Lara after Raúl Moreno left them (apparently enroute to Chiapas) and could not provide any further information.
2. As to Sandoval, L/4 told Rowton that the latter had again telephoned her to offer any help she might need but did not have any news from Lara or L/3. L/4 gave Rowton the home address of Francisco Lara as care of Martha I. Lara de Rodriguez, 16 Avenida 20-74, Zona 12, Guatemala, Guatemala, tel: 48-17-17.
3. L/4 then reported that she had visited LIRING/9's office as requested by Rowton and managed to get another look at the book-case cabinet in the corner of the room. She commented that on entering the premises she was surprised to find that the typewriter (German make) previously located in the middle office (that used by Mirabal) had been moved into the back office of L/9 and that Rosita, the wife of Luna, was struggling with two fingers to type out something as she entered. L/4 said that L/9 was quite cordial to her and invited her in for a coffee and presenting her with five tickets to the ballet performance that evening. When L/4 asked him whether anything had come in re her re-entry permit, the latter immediately began opening the mail on his desk with the comment that perhaps a reply had arrived that morning and he would check at once. After looking through the mail he replied in the negative but did not discourage L/4 from hoping that the reply would be in soon.
4. L/4 then stated to Rowton that she noticed that the cabinet in the corner of the room was bigger ~~thax~~ and lower than she had recalled from previous visits and had legs about two inches high. She added that the cabinet which was divided into two sections, the one to the left containing a shelf on which there was nothing but cigars and cigarettes and the right ^{half} consisting of a compartment with a door covered with sack cloth (costal) and possibly locked by key.

She stated that the cabinet was placed catty-cornered and that in the rather spacious triangle behind it she could see many rolls of paper, which she assumed were discarded posters apparently placed there at random. L/4 then made the attached sketch on a napkin stressing the difficulty she had in providing Rowton with exact measurements. She added that there were two windows facing the street, one in the reception room and one in the middle room, but the only window in the back room faced on the inside patio and had a venetian blind and a gauze curtain but no drapes.

5. L/4 then told Rowton that she had learned from Jorrin that he would be returning POS very soon since his replacement had already arrived. He gave L/4 his home address as Velasquez 94 Altos, e/Infanta y Cruz del Padre, Barrio Villa Nueva, Habana. L/4 commented to Rowton that she would take advantage of his return (possibly on 22/4/68) to send another letter to Abreu asking for a definitive reply to her re-entry request. She added that she felt she could count on Jorrin for this service, as her relations with him had always been very cordial.

6. L/4 also mentioned that she had seen and greeted Cepeda who had just returned from Havana (apparently without his wife). L/9 told L/4 that he himself had been in Havana the preceding week on a regular courier run.

7. L/4 also turned over to Rowton several publications which she had received from Catalina Cepero and the press office. She commented that the wife of Cruz was working as secretary to the Chief LIRING in addition to her duties as responsible for confidential documents.

Subject: LIRING/4 Report of Conversation with Sergio Valdez re
LIRING/3 Alleged MOFACT Affiliation.

1. LIRING/4 met with Rowton at the new safehouse room Rowton rented for security reasons under the alias Jean Mercier at the Suites Marne. Rowton had given L/4 a key and she entered the building and proceeded directly to the apartment, arriving at about 1700. Rowton posed as a French businessman and introduced L/4 to the owner (and his sister) as his secretary.

2. LIRING/4 stated that she was glad to have some time alone with Rowton since she had received a disturbing report from Sergio Valdez again revealing that reports of LIRING/3's alleged affiliation with MOFACT were circulating in leftist circles. She explained that Sergio Valdez had talked with her at her apartment (Atoyac) ~~Monday~~ ^{Wednesday} evening (15 April, 1968) far into the night about two reports he had received about LIRING/3. Sergio Valdez explained that about three weeks previously his father (who works on the staff of "Siempre" told him that he should be careful in his dealings with LIRING/3 since the latter was a MOFACT agent. Sergio Valdez told L/4 that he became indignant at this telling his father that he had known L/3 for the past ten years and considered L/3 as his mentor in revolutionary philosophy and had absolutely no reasons to distrust him in his current activities. Sergio Valdez added that he threatened to break with his father unless the latter revealed to him the source of his information. His father finally confessed that he learned this from Alberto Dominguez, his boss in Siempre, but he could not say from whom Dominguez had received the report.

3. Sergio Valdez continued that in addition to this report he had also been told some time ago by General Mariberto Jara (now deceased) that he should be careful in his dealings with LIRING/3 since the latter was known to be a "traitor to the revolution". Sergio Valdez added that General Jara did not specify any reason for his allegation or give details.

4. Sergio Valdez, according to L/4, stated in reference to these allegations that he was quite naturally very disturbed and had hesitated to mention them to LIRING/3 before his departure in order not to upset him. He stated that he had given the matter a great deal of thought and had come to the conclusion that Crozco was the person passing out this scurrilous report and that he intended to get to the bottom of the whole business himself without involving LIRING/3. He explained that he was planning to organize a group of four or five armed men to kidnap Crozco and interrogate him until he confessed everything. He added that if Crozco finally confessed that he had passed this calmly to Alberto Dominguez they would assassinate Crozco on the spot. If, however, it became clear that Crozco was innocent they would look for some one else who might have been the source.

5. LIRING/4 stated that this whole conversation had shaken her badly since it was again an indication that 1/3 was through no fault of his own accused of betraying the revolution and she was well aware of the drastic action that the Guatemalan revolutionaries as well as the Cubans were willing to take against persons accused even on slim evidence of being traitors. She asked Rowton under no circumstances to reveal this latest report to LIRING/3 since she knew such reports might drive him to do something drastic.

6. LIRING/4 also reported that in the course of conversation Sergio Valdez had brought up the name of Mr. Harris, but not in connection with the above-mentioned report against 1/3. She explained that Sergio Valdez said that he knew of 1/3's business relations with Harris in the past and that he himself hoped some day to be able to meet Harris so that he might interest Harris in his own commercial ventures. 1/4 told Rowton that she pretended not to have much direct dealing with Harris and alleged that as far as she knew he was currently in Canada.

Subject: Rolando Mendez Aguilar, Guatemalan Rebel Contact in Mexico City.

1. LIFEAT coverage of the home telephone of LIVING/3 has revealed Subject to be a contact of Francisco Lara of FAR and Rodolfo Sandoval of the Yon Rosa group of Guatemalan rebels in Mexico City.
2. On two occasions in early April, 1968, Francisco Lara, during a visit to LIVING/3's apartment, made telephone calls to 45-60-30 (listed as Publicaciones e Impresiones Mexicanas S.A. - Diario Evacuaciones, Calle Lago Simabuco 207) and asked for Sr. Mendez Aguilar on extension 27. It is apparent from the context of conversation that Subject is a close friend and possible collaborator of Lara's. LIVING/3 reported the telephone call to Rowton, which he stated was made in his presence in an effort by Lara to locate Rodolfo Sandoval. According to L/3, Lara asked the person whom he telephoned (L/3 could not identify this person since Lara did not use his name while talking) where "their fine friend" was. L/3 continued that Lara did not mention Sandoval's name, apparently for security reasons, but he had previously told L/3 that he was calling to determine the whereabouts of Sandoval. L/3 also reported that he heard Lara refer to a certain "El Gato" and to "El Gordo". L/3 told Rowton that he could not identify the former, but it appeared that "El Gordo" referred to the young friend of Lara's whose photograph L/3 had previously given to Rowton for copying and who was named only "Roberto" in conversations with Lara.
3. The LIFEAT intercept reveals that Francisco Lara told Mendez Aguilar that he had been with Sandoval early the preceding evening but that the latter had not shown up for the meeting arranged for that same morning. When pressed Mendez confessed that Sandoval had returned home drunk and was probably sleeping off the effects of the previous evening. This would indicate that Sandoval probably lived with Mendez Aguilar, or at least maintains close contact with him.
4. The Station is attempting to determine the home address of Subject in the hope that further specific information can be uncovered concerning his relationship with FAR.

Wallace B. Rowton

24 April, 1968

1. LIRING/4 informed Rowton 24 April, 1968, that she received telegram from Mexican Consulate Guatemala City advising her "Consulate intervening in case her husband; will continue to keep informed". LIRING/4 on her own initiative (before she able meet with Rowton) asked advice Sergio Valdez and Manuel Marcué Pardiñas (of defunct Politica).
2. On recommendation Valdez, LIRING/4 telephoned Mexican Consulate Guatemala City and spoke at some length with Consul Octavio Serrano. Latter assured her LIRING/3 well and that he taking personal interest since he ^{old} ~~personal~~ friend LIRING/3's father. He explained that initial hearing would take place next day and that judge would have eight days in which decide disposition of the case. He gave LIRING/4 his home telephone and promised to keep her informed.
3. No mention made either in conversation with Serrano or in local press of simultaneous arrest of Francisco Lara, although arrest of Carlos Persabal Marcué ~~next~~ reported ~~simultaneous~~. Charge listed as "distributing communist propaganda".
4. LIRING/4 also reported that in her hurried meeting with Manuel Marcué Pardiñas latter at first took "it-served-them-right-approach" but confided that he had learned of arrest preceding day and immediately appealed to Carrillo Flores. According Marcué, Flores sent telegram in his presence to Mexican Consulate instructing it to bring matter to diplomatic level if necessary.
5. LIRING/4 also showed Rowton note from LIRING/3 in pencil on brown paper apparently ^{hastily} ~~torn~~ from paper bag which she stated she received that day in plain envelope with typed address and apparently notional return address. She assumes this sent at request LIRING/3 by Octavio Serrano. Note reassure LIRING/4 that LIRING/3 in good health and that he can handle matters on his own. He states "Persabal is to blame" and instructs LIRING/4 to warn wife of Francisco Lara not to talk to anyone. Also to urge mother of Lara not to come Guatemala City in attempt help him.
6. Rowton instructed LIRING/4 give maximum play this development to LIRINGs in hope that this might wipe out adverse reports circulating against loyalty LIRING/3. LIRING/4, who expects re-entry permit PBRUMEN momentarily, will ask LIRINGs for extension in view developments.

25 April, 1968

Subject: LIRING/4 Report of Visit to LIRING Offices.

1. LIRING/4 reported to Rowden at 1800 on 25/4/68 at the hotel safe room that she had visited the LIRING establishment that morning to inform everyone of the news concerning LIRING/3. She stated that on entering her friend (LIRING/3's secretary) informed her that her re-entry permit had come ~~in~~ through the preceding evening. L/4 explained at once that unfortunately she could not leave on the next flight because of LIRING/3's arrest. She then, despite the fact that his secretary told her that LIRING/3 was in a nasty mood, went into the latter's office and told him what had happened. LIRING/3 was very sympathetic, telling her that he also read the article in the paper. When L/4 showed him the last note written to her by L/3 which contained the sentence "Persebal tiene la culpa", LIRING/3 became very agitated and exclaimed that he would immediately "make out a card" (ficha) recording this treachery of Persebal. L/3 agreed that L/4 could not possibly leave for BERLIN as planned and felt it would not be difficult to get an extension over the usual twenty-day limit of the re-entry permit.
2. LIRING/4 continued that she then went to see LIRING/2 and recounted the whole story to him, including L/3's involvement with FAR and the 13th of November movement. She noted that when she casually commented that Modolfo Sandoval had told her that Yon Rosa had returned from BERLIN via Mexico City about a month previously, LIRING/2 pretended not to be aware of this, exclaiming, "Imagine, they don't tell us those things!" LIRING/2 then said that he was leaving for a week IDY in BERLIN the next day and would be happy to take along any letters L/4 might wish to send to their mutual friends explaining why she could not leave for BERLIN at that time.
3. LIRING/4 also reported that while she was in the office of LIRING/3 she met Leo Deven who runs a hotel in Acapulco and whom she remembered from occasional visits he had made to the LIRING offices while she was working there. She described Deven as an obvious homosexual, well dressed and patronizing in his manners. He told her that he planned to travel to BERLIN "on Friday" (whether 26 April or 3 May was not specified) to see his son who was studying there. L/4 commented that everyone at the LIRING office appeared to treat Deven with respect and confidence.
4. Re the layout of the office of LIRING/3 (backroom) LIRING/4 said she noted the addition of the typewriter table (formerly in the middle room) against the left wall with a portable Olympia typewriter on it. The German typewriter was still on the big desk. Also behind the small coffee table in the corner she noted that the rolled up posters were gone and in their place were two or three packages of books.

Subject: LIRING/4 Report of Telephone Conversation with Yolanda Diaz.

1. LIRING/4 reported to Rowton on 22 April, 1968, that she received a telephone call from her negro doctor friend, Yolanda Diaz from PERUEN, on the evening of 19 April, 1968, advising her that her re-entry permit had been approved. Yolanda added cheerfully, according to LIRING/4, that she would be expecting her on the 22 April flight.
2. LIRING/4 continued to Rowton that she telephoned her friend, LIRING/9's secretary, early on 22 April, to find out whether the LIRING office locally had received the approval. She was told that no word had as yet been received. LIRING/4 repeated the request for confirmation that same afternoon in the presence of Rowton but again received a negative reply.

Subject: LIRING/4 Report of Meeting with Manuel Marcu6 Pardiñas.

1. Rowton met with LIRING/4 for lunch at the Punto Blanco restaurant on Melchor Ocampo at 1300 on 27/4/68. Rowton had given up the safe-room in the Hotel Suites Marne earlier that morning since he felt it was not longer necessary.

2. LIRING/4 reported that Manuel Marcu6 Pardiñas, the uncle of Carlos Persabal Marcu6, had telephoned her the previous evening "frontie street" and arranged to see her privately at the Koala Restaurant (María Isabela hotel) later in the evening. According to LIRING/4, Marcu6 told her that through his appeal to Carrillo Flores the case of LIRING/3 and his nephew was now in diplomatic channels and he hoped that both prisoners would be simply deported after a summary trial. He could not, however, guarantee anything, especially the length of time involved, and asked LIRING/4 to refrain from any activity that might prejudice the case. Specifically he instructed LIRING/4 to break off all contact with the Guatemalan revolutionaries in Mexico, the LIRING establishment, and all communication with the Mexican Consul in Guatemala City. He ~~emphasized~~ stressed that any false move on LIRING/4's part might cause Carrillo Flores to withdraw his intervention. Marcu6 promised to keep in touch with LIRING/4 so that she would not feel completely helpless. He added that the mother of Carlos Persabal Marcu6 (supposedly Manuel Marcu6 Pardiñas' sister) would be traveling to Guatemala City in the next few days so that she could visit her son and follow the case at first hand.

3. LIRING/4 also reported to Rowton that Rodolfo Sandoval of the Ym Sosa group had promised to visit her at her apartment the previous evening at 2200 in the company of Sergio Valdez to discuss matters further. He had informed her on the phone in making the date that "El Gordo" had returned from Guatemala City - implying that the latter had news concerning the fate of Francisco Lara (whose arrest was not reported in the press, nor by Octavio Serrrano, the Mexican Consul, to LIRING/4). LIRING/4 surmised that Francisco Lara had escaped arrest and his involvement with LIRING/3 was not known. She therefore agreed with Marcu6 that she should not see Sandoval and the other Guatemalans in public, and especially not at her apartment.

4. LIRING/4 also reported that Manuel Marcué Pardiñas had asked her not to call him at his home again to ask for news, or as a matter of fact discuss in any way the case by telephone. He stated that he felt the phone of LIRING/4 as well as his own phones were tapped and that possibly LIRING/4's apartment was being watched. He did not specify by whom or for what purpose, but LIRING/4 told Rowton that she assumed it would be either by the Mexican Government or the Mano Blanca of Guatemala or both. Rowton again encouraged LIRING/4 to move out of the Atoyac apartment and back into the less conspicuous calzada Tacubaya place, commenting that this would not only prevent future security risks but also convince the LIRINGs that she was suffering financially because of LIRING/3's plight (she stated that she has already intimated this in conversations with the wife and secretary of the LIRING Chief, as well as with LIRING/2). LIRING/4 agreed but expressed regret that the Tacubaya apartment did not have a phone and that she might miss important mail addressed to the Atoyac apartment and arriving after her departure. Rowton suggested one last letter to the Mexican Consul in Guatemala City simply advising him of the change of address.

5. LIRING/4 also showed Rowton the return address typed on the envelope in which the note from LIRING/3 to her had been forwarded. The address, which Rowton supposes is notional, placed on the envelope by Otavio Serano, ^{at the suggestion of LIRING/3} for security reasons, is as follows:

Carlos Rodriguez
35 Avenida 20-67, Zona 5
Guatemala C.A.

6. Rowton concluded with the comment that he felt LIRING/4 need not take Marcué's instruction not to visit the LIRING offices too seriously, since it was a well known and easily ascertainable fact that LIRING/4 had a logical reason for going there occasionally. Rowton did not wish LIRING/4 to break off relations at this critical time, especially since LIRING/2 had consented to her on her last visit that she should feel free to come in at any time she needed help or consolation during the crisis.

29 April, 1968

SUBJECT: LIRING/4 Report of Contact with Sandoval and Marcu.

1. Rowton met with LIRING/4 for late lunch at the Lunto Blanco restaurant on Melchor Ocampo on 29/4/68. She had to bring her child along since the 16-year-old son of LIRING/3 was not at her apartment at the time.
2. LIRING/4 reported that Sandoval of the 13th of November Group of Yon Sosa had again visited her and shown great concern for her welfare. He again offered her some money, such as he had, but LIRING/4 refused in view of his simultaneous complaints of the financial crisis he himself was undergoing. He explained that since Francisco Lara left he had been supporting Lara's entire family consisting of Lara's wife, mother, and their two young children. LIRING/4 said Sandoval reached a point in emotional frustration during the conversation that he exclaimed that he would have to resort to robbery or a hold-up in order to get the necessary money not only to support Lara's family but to send someone to Guatemala City to see LIRING/3 and procure a good lawyer for him. LIRING/4 told Rowton that this upset her so that she spent the rest of the evening pleading with Sandoval not to commit any criminal act. Sandoval then revealed that he and his friends had held up a policeman during the Humphrey visit and taken his gun, since they were short one weapon.
3. LIRING/4, commenting that Sandoval's only income was from selling language records for the Cortina Instituto Linguistico, told Rowton that she promised to contact all her friends in an attempt to help him sell the records and thus raise some money legally. L/4 explained to Rowton that Sandoval's commission is about 350 pesos per set of records, which is actually the down payment made by the customer (the remainder being paid in weekly or monthly instalments of about 165 pesos). L/4 asked Rowton's help in finding customers among his business contacts to help Sandoval.
4. LIRING/4 also reported that Manuel Marcu Pardiñas had visited her at her apartment late the previous evening. He told her that Carlos Fersabal's wife, Teresa Lozada, would be accompanying her mother-in-law to Guatemala City. He also stated that he was optimistic since Carrillo Flores had instructed the Mexican Consul to appeal to the Guatemalan Minister of Foreign Affairs. Marcu commented that unfortunately the Mexican Consul could not reach this official himself since he was currently in New York. He hoped however that the Consul would see the Minister's secretary to arrange direct intervention. L/4 commented to Rowton that Marcu seemed very curious about the LIRING office, but she fended off his questions by alleging that she had little or no contact with it. L/4 also commented that Sergio Valdez, who was being particularly helpful to her at this time, warned her sternly against accepting any money from Marcué in light of his reputation as an unscrupulous lothario. L/4 added that Marcué promised to see her again the following evening to keep her informed.

5. When Rowton again suggested that LIRING/4 move from the Atoyac apartment back to the Tacubaya place despite its dreariness and lack of telephone, she presented no objection, commenting that with all the traffic in and out of her Atoyac apartment at all hours of the night her reputation is probably in jeopardy, especially with her immediate neighbors and the cleaning women and maids. She promised Rowton to move out the following day since it was the end of the month and a logical time. She also promised when revisiting the LIRING office the next morning to make this known, stressing her financial plight.

6. LIRING/4 then appealed to Rowton to help her establish some sort of contact with LIRING/3, if for nothing else than to find out how he was and whether he needed anything. L/4 felt that Rowton might send some business contact of his to visit L/3 on Rowton's behalf, giving some recognition signal to LIRING/3. When Rowton pointed out the danger in this of possibly making things worse for L/3, LIRING/4 commented that Sandoval had told her that visitors were not required to sign a register or give lengthy explanations. L/4 added that she might find someone, including Sergio Valdez or Raúl Moreno or one of their friends who might make a short trip to Guatemala City to see LIRING/3. In reply to Rowton's query, L/4 commented that she did not expect anything from the wife or mother of Carlos Bersabal since they had not even bothered to telephone her since the arrest became known.

7. Rowton promised to give the matter some thought and discuss it further with LIRING/4 the following afternoon.

Subject: LIRING/4 Report of Contacts with LIRING Office.

1. On 3 May, 1968, LIRING/4 reported to Boston that she had revisited the LIRING offices the preceding day and noticed that the black telephone was replaced in the middle office (where she herself used to work). She stated that she could not be certain that it was the same instrument and that it was replaced by one of the LIRING employees, but it appeared that way since she had not seen the instrument there on her visit on the previous Friday (26/4/68) and LIRING/9 had commented that the telephone would be replaced in the middle room.
2. With regard to LIRING/3's current situation, LIRING/4 reported that she had again talked to the Mexican Consul in Guatemala City by telephone on 2 May, 1968, and was reassured that LIRING/3 was in good health. The Consul informed her that he could visit L/3 on Thursdays and Sundays, and would be glad to pass any letters that L/4 might send to him for L/3. The Consul also commented that the Mexican Relaciones Exteriores had instructed him to take up L/3's case with the Guatemalan Ministry of Foreign Affairs. He added that he hoped with this pressure to persuade the Guatemalan government to deport L/3 within the next ten days.
3. LIRING/4 then reported what she described as a very disturbing conversation on 3 May, 1968, with Sergio Valdez. She related that Valdez had come to see her in the morning to apologize for not having any money to lend her to help her meet expenses. He explained that he had not been paid by the Revista Porque? and was very short of funds himself. L/4 continued that she would have to appeal to all her friends and those of L/3 for some money to tide her over until L/3 returned. She then regretted that she had not been able to locate "Sr. Harris" but if and when he came to Mexico again she would have to "renew diplomatic relations" with him. Sergio Valdez then, according to LIRING/4, laughed and said that this reminded him of another nasty rumor that he had heard. He then revealed that Raúl Moreno had recently told him that a certain Gonzalez of the Spartaco Club had told him (Moreno) that LIRING/4 had been fired from the LIRING offices because she had been providing information to the PERINE Embassy and that he had learned this from the LIRING "service" officer. Sergio Valdez also mentioned that a "girl who worked in the zona rosa" who knows Teresa or Carmen Lozada had mentioned that Sr. Harris had offered Carmen Lozada the sum of $4,000.00 for information on the situation in PBRUMEN. LIRING/4 told Rowton that she was badly shaken by these comments but attempted to assume as non-chalant an air as possible and did not question Sergio Valdez to determine the exact source. She noted that Sergio Valdez had mentioned Rowton several times to her, always apparently in passing, with the obvious hope that LIRING/4 would reveal his presence in Mexico and arrange an introduction to him for Sergio Valdez. LIRING/4 agreed with Rowton that Valdez was probably provoking her since at all times he appeared to be well disposed toward Sr. Harris from what he knew of him from LIRING/3. Rowton commented to L/4 that the last report concerning Carmen Lozada appeared to have been fabricated either by Sergio Valdez or one of his friends, simply on the basis of the fact that Sr. Harris had been in touch with Carmen Lozada while she was in Mexico.

4. LIRING/4 then stated that she felt she had to continue to impress Sergio Valdez with her desperate need for money and accordingly telephoned the LIRING gatekeeper in his presence and asked for a loan. When the gatekeeper responded favorably, she left Sergio Valdez waiting in the apartment and went to the LIRING Offices at once to collect the loan. The gatekeeper gave her 100 pesos on the spot, fortunately in the presence of LIRING/13. L/4 told Rowton that she promised to return the money in the next week, as soon as she received money promised to her by her father.

5. LIRING/4 added that as she was leaving the LIRING office she ran into the leftist writer, Jaime Labastida, who expressed his sorrow at the arrest of LIRING/3. Labastida commented that someone had told him recently that a cartoon of some kind had appeared in a Tapachula newspaper "against LIRING/3". When L/4 pressed him he gave a description of the "someone" that definitely identified him as Sergio Valdez. L/4 continued that when she confronted Sergio Valdez with this upon her return to the apartment, he hotly denied it, much to L/4's mystification.

6. LIRING/4 also commented that Manuel Marqués Pardiñas continued to telephone her at very late hours of the night in the hope (she assumed) that she would invite him up. She called him a "viejo verde" and added that she had no intention of seeing him alone at her home at night.

Subject: LIRING/4 Report Concerning Sentencing of LIRING/3.

1. LIRING/4 reported to Rowton at the Punto Blanco restaurant on Melchor Ocampo at 1300 on 8/5/68 that Manuel Marcué Pardiñas had informed her at 0100 that same day that he had just learned that LIRING/3 and his nephew had been sentenced to prison, with a minimum term of six months. Marcué added that his sister and her daughter-in-law would be returning to Mexico City by the end of the week and should be able to supply details of the trial and prospects for the immediate future of having the prison term reduced. LIRING/4 explained to Rowton that she had accepted a dinner invitation at Sanborns extended to her by Aguirre Jerjes, a professor at UNAM with whom she had studied at the University of Havana, and arrived at the home of Gilberto and Blanca Amant (Blanca Peña de Amant), with whom she was staying, rather late and found Manuel Marcué waiting for her. After apologizing profusely for his previous rude conduct with L/4, he reported the latest news concerning L/3 to her.
2. LIRING/4 agreed with Rowton that although the prison sentence was probably definite, she should check it out with the Mexican Consul personally. She stated that fortunately she remembered a certain Josefina Rodriguez who worked in the larga distancia service of Telefonos de México whom she had originally met as a friend of LIRING/2. L/4 commented that Srta Rodriguez whom she described as "muy fea" was enamored of LIRING/2 some years ago but stopped seeing him (to her knowledge) when she found out that he was married. L/4 continued that Srta Rodriguez had already promised to put through long distance calls to Guatemala for L/4 without charging the calls, if they could be arranged during her shift at the switchboard.
3. LIRING/4 also reported that she had again visited the LIRING offices at 1345 on 7/5/68 and again about 1130 that same morning. At Rowton's request she again checked the phone in the third office. On the first visit the office had already been closed but she ran into LIRING/13 at the gate and accepted a ride home (she felt this fortunate since he dropped her at the Tacubaya apartment at her request). On this occasion during a brief exchange of comments with the gatekeeper and L/13, LIRING/4 learned that LIRING/2 will return from BRUMEN on 10/5/68. CS COPY
4. On visiting the LIRING offices on the morning of 8/5/68, LIRING/4 told Rowton that fortunately only her friend Catalina and Rosita (secretary of LIRING/9) were present. When she went into the third office where Rosita was working she asked to use the phone and approached the instrument. She was able to note that the name "Oki Electric, Tokyo, Japan" was marked on the instrument. She also noted the word "Call" but could not tell whether it was part of the manufacturer's name or a Mexican or U.S. subsidiary. She also noted that below the receiver were four switches (like the ordinary push light switches) unmarked or unnumbered. When she explained to Rosita: "How do you dial on this phone", Rosita replied: "But it's not a phone, it's an intercom". LIRING/4 told Rowton that she then commented: "But how come, the intercom is in the first office." Rosita then, according to L/4, stated: "But that's a special intercom." (L/4 explained that she was referring to the phone she had in her hand).

5. LIRING/4 continued that when she passed through the second office, she noted that the phone which had been replaced in that room was of Erickson manufacture and was the same instrument previously there when she worked in that office. She assumes that the LIRINGS replaced the phone themselves.

6. LIRING/4 also told Rowton that she had located an excellent apartment in the Edificio Condesa (Matzatlán and Veracruz) through her friend Blanca Peña who lives in the same development. LIRING/4 added that she had given the administrator 300 pesos to hold the apartment for her until she could arrange a fiador. She also stated that she could obtain a telephone eventually since the former tenant had applied and received approval just before he left. LIRING/4 reassured Rowton that she was telling everyone, particularly the LIRINGS, that she was living at the Tacubaya apartment and temporarily staying as a house guest at the home of Blanca Peña de Azant. She also reassured Rowton that she had informed the LIRING gatekeeper when she returned the 100 peso loan that she had received money from her father in New York. LIRING/4 added that several friends, including the well-known writer Revueltas, had offered to find her some sort of work. She stated that if she could find suitable employment in the mornings she would accept the offer, if only for appearances.

2. According to reports submitted to Wallace B. ROWTON by LIRING-3, the latter met Carlos Manuel Persaval Marcue originally through the latter's sister-in-law, Carmen Lozada de Ramirez, who had been carrying on an extra-marital affair with LIRING-3 since early November 1967. On the evening of 3 March 1968, Persaval approached LIRING-3 in connection with the difficulties that a young Guatemalan woman living in Mexico City was having in obtaining false documentation to enable her to travel to Guatemala to recontact her husband, whom Persaval described as "an important guerrilla leader". Persaval revealed to LIRING-3 that he had been assisting the FAR in propaganda work in Mexico for some time and gave LIRING-3 several copies of a pamphlet entitled "Violencia en Guatemala" which Persaval said had been published on one of his uncle's presses and was being sold at the nominal price of three Mexican pesos to help raise money for the FAR.

3. When LIRING-3, under ROWTON's direction, responded favorably to this initial approach, Persaval pursued the matter and finally, on 8 April, revealed that he was in touch with two "important guerrilla leaders" who needed help in returning clandestinely to Guatemala. Persaval asked LIRING-3 to arrange to guide these persons across the Guatemalan border south of Chiapas, an area LIRING-3 had previously told Persaval he was very familiar with from his previous residence in San Cristobal. Persaval made no further reference to the "young Guatemalan wife of the FAR leader". LIRING-3 surmised to ROWTON that this person might actually have been the wife of Francisco Lara Barrios, but that plans for her return were discarded in favor of the trip by Lara himself.

4. At ROWTON's urging, LIRING-3 insisted on meeting the two Guatemalans involved and in talking to them before undertaking such a mission. Persaval finally introduced LIRING-3 to Francisco Lara Barrios on 17 March 1968, and the latter presented LIRING-3 to a certain "Rodolfo", who LIRING-3 ascertained subsequently was a member of the 13th of November group headed by Yon Sosa by the name of Sandoval. Francisco Lara Barrios confided to LIRING-3 that he had in his possession a false Guatemalan passport in the name of Jose Maria Oliva Carranza and that he had obtained legal residence in Mexico with his wife and children through the efforts of ex-Mexican President Lazaro Cardenas. He also named a certain Eskenazi and LIREBEL-1 as persons who assisted Guatemalan exiles in Mexico. Station believes Eskenazi may be identical with Luis David Eskenassy Cruz, a former agent of the Guatemala City Station.

5. With the approval of ROWTON, LIRING-3 agreed to help the above-mentioned persons to cross the Mexican/Guatemalan border and to accompany them to Guatemala City. This latter extension of the original trip was made by Lara at the suggestion of LIRING-3 so that the latter could meet with the FAR woman responsible for logistics. LIRING-3 reported to ROWTON subsequently that just before their departure, Lara also offered to arrange for LIRING-3 to travel clandestinely to the Sierra de las Minas to meet directly with FAR and 13th of November leaders to discuss further support that LIRING-3 might be able to provide through his commercial contacts in Chiapas and northern Mexico.

6. LIRING-3 fabricated a false Mexican identity document (Secretaria de Education) for Francisco Lara Barrios in the name of Jacinto Rangel Cervantes with Lara slightly disguised so that the latter could move about more unobtrusively on the Mexican side of the border just prior to crossing. On 3 April 1968, just prior to their scheduled departure date, Francisco Lara informed LIRING-3 that their mutual friend Rodolfo Sandoval would not be accompanying them since he was too well known and his mission was not important enough to justify the risk and the expense involved.

7. LIRING-3 did not depart as he had hoped on 5 April 1968, because Lara unfortunately accidentally shot himself in the ankle on the morning of that day while cleaning his gun and had to be given medical attention before he could make the trip. LIRING-4 told ROWTON that LIRING-3, Francisco Lara and Raul Moreno, a friend of LIRING-3, finally left Mexico City in the personal car of Raul Moreno on 10 April 1968. But that Moreno had returned to Mexico City two days later as a result of an accident that disabled the car somewhere in Chiapas. LIRING-4 did not report anything concerning the subsequent involvement of Carlos Persaval Marcue, stating that she had not received any communication from LIRING-3 after his telegram of 12 April, in which he reported the return of Raul Moreno. ROWTON surmises that when Raul Moreno had to return to Mexico City. LIRING-3 and Lara asked Carlos Persaval Marcue to join them and drive them to the border in his own car, and that Persaval continued on with them toward Guatemala City.

8. Guatemala City Station advised on 22 April 1968, that the story of the arrest of Lara, Persaval and LIRING-3 had reached the local press and that they would be turned over to the appropriate courts for trial. This indicates that LIRING-3 may eventually be released and hence be available to ROWTON for complete debriefing.

9. The only significant name that had surfaced as a result of LIRING-3's involvement with the Guatemalan rebels in Mexico City is that of Rolando Mendez Aguilar, whom Francisco Lara Barrios contacted on 45-60-30 extension 27, in early April from the home telephone of LIRING-3. (This number corresponds to the "Publicaciones e Impresiones Mexicanas, S.A. - Diario Ovaciones, Calle Lago Sirahuen 297, Mexico City). From the LIFEAT coverage on LIRING-3 it is apparent that Mendez is a close contact of both Lara and Sandoval and may be providing or have provided employment for them in Mexico. The Station is attempting to determine the home address of Mendez in the hope that further details of his possible collaboration may be uncovered.

MEMORANDUM

SUBJECT: LIRING-3 Visit To Guatemala With Guerrillas
FRANCISCO ADALBERTO LARRA BARRIOS and CARLOS
MANUEL PERSAVAL MARCUE

1. On 5 March 1968, LIRING-3 had dinner with CARLOS PERSAVAL MARCUE, nephew of MANUEL MARCUE PARDINES, director of the now defunct magazine "POLITICA", a Communist bi-monthly publication. During the dinner PERSAVAL queried LIRING-3 if he could obtain a false passport for the wife of an important Guatemalan guerilla leader so that she could travel from Mexico to Guatemala. LIRING-3 replied that he would do his utmost to assist.
2. On 8 March 1968 PERSAVAL told LIRING-3 that two(2) Guatemalan revolutionaries had need to travel to Guatemala by mid-March. LIRING-3 commented that there was limited possibility of obtaining false documents, but that he could brief the Guatemalans so as to facilitate their illegal crossing of the Mexican/Guatemalan border, or if they desired, he would guide them.
3. On 9 March 1968, PERSAVAL again discussed the matter with LIRING-3, saying that one of the two travellers possessed legal travel documents. Since the other person has no such legal documents, they should enter Guatemala illegally.
[MEXI-4790]
4. LIRING-3 reported on 27 March 1968, that one of the traveller to Guatemala is FRANCISCO ADALBERTO LARA BARRIOS. The group is of the opinion that LIRING-3 should also go to Guatemala in order to meet an unidentified woman, described as the FAR logistics officer, to discuss FAR support from Mexico.
[MEXI-5000]
5. Departure was delayed because LARA sustained a self-inflicted gun shot wound while cleaning a weapon. On 10 April LIRING-3, LARA, and another person--described as a member of the YON SOSA Faction--departed en route to Guatemala. LIRING-3 was informed that the FAR and the YON SOSA group are now working together, but that a certain amount of compartmentation exists.

6. During the 14-15 April week-end, Guatemalan authorities arrested three individuals near the Mexican border. They were brought to Guatemala City where they are being held for interrogation.

The persons arrested are:

- a. FRANCISCO ADALBERTO LARA BARRIOS (Guatemalan)
- b. CARLOS JURADO DEL MAR (Mexican)
- c. CARLOS MANUEL PERSAVAL MARCUE (Mexican)

When arrested LARA admitted that he is a Communist, and that he is returning to Guatemala to renounce his affiliation.

7. The G-2 of the Guatemalan military was not successful in its interrogation of the Subjects. Liaison attempted it but was compelled to conduct its interrogation in the presence of G-2 officials who continually interrupted. Liaison was attempting additional interrogation under more favorable circumstances. Meanwhile G-2 is considering turning over the Subjects to the "Army Special Unit" for further interrogation.
